USPA NEWS - Heartiest wishes for Modi's 'Mann Ki Baat'

Modi's eloquence and his special experience on various topics also brought this program closer to the people. Especially Modi's mention of “Seva Paramo Dharmah” in the opening message of this program is touching.

Jana Sena Party President Pawan Kalyan issued a statement saying, "Congratulations to Honorable Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the auspicious occasion of 'Mann Ki Baat' completing 100 episodes tomorrow.

This program, in which the Prime Minister of the country interacts with the countrymen himself through the medium of radio, is very accessible to the listeners and the viewers who watch it on subsequent TV broadcasts. If we look at the statistics, so far 100 crore people have listened to this program on radio or watched it on TV. I am happy to know that 23 crore people are supporting it every month. It is a wonderful thing that this program which started on the 3rd of October, 2014 on Vijayadasami continuously taking place on the last Sunday of every month.

The topics that PM Modi addresses in this program are very diverse. Achievements of common people, great people, arts, crafts, service programs, welfare schemes provided by the government to the people... many things brought this program closer to the people. Apart from that, Modi's eloquence and his special experience on various topics also brought this program closer to the people. Especially Modi's mention of “Seva Paramo Dharmah” in the opening message of this program is touching. Pawan Kalyan stated that he sincerely wishes the program to continue uninterrupted and conveyed his best wishes to Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the organizers of the program on this occasion.
