

Beat: Politics

PDT MACRON INTERVIEWED ON TV OVER THE JULY 14 NATIONAL DAY- PART 2

GERALD DARMANIN IS PRESUMED INNOCENT

Paris, Washington DC, 17.07.2020, 15:49 Time

USPA NEWS - At the end of the ceremony of July 14, which was this year in a reduced and unprecedented format, by honoring the workers of the confinement period on the first line, the President of the Republic, Emmanuel Macron replied to questions from Lea Salame and Gilles Bouleau journalists respectively from the TV channels, France 2 and TF1. President fixed a calendar of next actions, for the remaining 600 days of his mandate, as well as for the next 10 years, of the "reinvention » of France post COVID-19. The Head of State explained that putting youth in priority in the exoneration of charges mechanisms for the next, around 1 million youngsters